DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

From the New York Herald.

THE NEGRO CONVENTIONS IN THE SOUTH—THEIR EFFECT AT THE NORTH.

Alabama has led the van in the reconstruction of the United States by the negro. Other States are to follow until, under a glorious negro rule, the ten Southern divisions of our republic are bound and given over to Africa to be governed according to the Haytien style. The principles of the Conventions which frame these negro governments are shaped by the most unprincipled of all our demagogues. Without a dollar of interest in the country they stir the pliable black man to passion against the white, and, while moulding the mass to suit radical aims, sow the seeds of an unavoidable war of caste. They do not fail to promise the negro all that his barbarous imagination may desire—freedom from labor, a division of property, and even the government of the country. Thus, for transient political purposes, they force the whole sun burned brain of Ethiopia to the same focus, and teach it to expect what it can never realize while there is a Southern or a Northern sword left to defend Caucasian blood—blood originally purer than that of Africa, and purified still more by long centuries of arduous labor towards the summit of civilization; blood progressive, in contra distinction to blood retrograde and naturally barbaric in its impulses.

In the face of all this we see power centralizing in the South in the hands of that element which, according to all history, is a threat against any civilization with which it comes in contact. The platform of the radical republican party of Louisiana is a fair exponent of what threatens us in all the Southern States by raising up a power ten times more destructive and nationally demoralizing than any that has heretofore existed. That platform states:—"We as a party insist on perfect equality, without distinction of race or color, in the right to vote and enter the jury box without any educational or property qualification being required." Again:—"The radical republican party of Louisiana will support no man for office who will not openly and boldly pledge himself to make an equal distribution among white and colored alike of all offices to which he may have power of appointment."

These are the mad principles which, at a terrible cost, we urge upon one half of our territorial extent, thus threatening its complete desolation. Were it the destruction of only one-half of the country we might, in our wonderful stamina, live under it; but the radical programme means more than this—it means the draining of every energy of the North to support the one grand black idea, and, at any cost, forcing the negro down the throat of the nation. We struggle under it, we bleed, we expend our millions, we tax our people to the last feather's weight, we fairly writhe beneath the terrible effort to swallow a dose that would choke a mammoth anaconda. We cannot do it, and we cast it aside as something that would give the coup de grace to all the cherished hopes of a people who are struggling for civilization, not barbarism. We are taxed to day one thousand millions per year to support the Radical idea that Africa has a higher civilization than Europe, and that it is necessary for the United States, at any sacrifice, to approximate itself to the African standard.

The Radicals, determined to give all the strength possible to the negro card, train every element in the North to its support; and while in the South they tear down all barriers which distinguish races, while they abolish every aristocratic privilege, while they inaugurate there a Utopian agrarianism, they give us a singular contradiction of principles in the North. Here they strive to build up great moneyed monopolies, a dictatorial banking system, a centralization of party power, an enriching of the rich and an impoverishing of the poor.—Thus it becomes difficult to discover that there is any great underlying principle in radicalism, unless it be the sole idea to retain at all hazards the power into which the revolutionary throes of the country forced them.

The North is beginning to dive into this problem and is rapidly discovering its inconsistencies. There is a deep and settled resolution taking possession of the masses that they will no longer support aristocratic privileges in the North or negro elevation and barbarism in the South. Bled to the last drop of blood and treasure, the people begin to ask, "What is this money used for?" and, look where they will, they see the question answered—To prop up a quarter section of Africa, until we see if, centuries hence, it will be able to march onward unaided. God never made one race to support another. For this we made war in favor of the black man. As matters now progress under radical rule, we fast advance to a war to relieve the white from supporting the black.

The future aspirants for the Presidency must learn the truths which we here enunciate. If General Grant accepts the radical nomination upon such a platform as the above is now read he will be defeated, despite his national popularity and his masterly reticence. General Scott was defeated where there was similar but minor principles involved, and President Pierce, with all his imbecility, then stepped into power.

In the South we see all the preliminary movements for a desolating war of caste if the present programme be carried out.—The negroes have numerous leagues and are providing themselves with arms, which are given to them by the radicals. The white people, despairing of returning again to prosperity, and seeing their every effort met by a crushing blow from Congress, now give the country over to negro rule and emigrate elsewhere. Domestic capital threatened and Northern and foreign capital frightened away; State and municipal privileges completely under military domination, which is destructive to every element of our boasted republicanism; the credit of the States destroyed; and one half of the country desolated at the expense of the other half—are all mournful indications of approaching barbarism. The effect on the North is already indicated by the late elections. The negro wave must now ebb. It has had its greatest flow. The radicals may still float on the receding black tide; but the white people of the United States, as a mass, have too much sense left to place their future civilization and government under negro domination.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!!

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS FOR 1867.

Old Prices Reached the City and Stopped at

A. CREECH'S.

R. SMITH'S CORNER,

Fayetteville Street.

I AM NOW RECEIVING MY FALL AND WINter Stock of

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods,

And I can say, with safety, that I have one among the largest and most complete stocks that has ever been brought to this City, either before or since the war,—embracing almost any and everything suitable for Ladies' and Gentlemen's wear.

CALICOES, 10, 12½, 15, and 18 cents per yard.

FRENCH MERINOS, 75 cts. to $1,25 per yard.

DELAINES, POPLINS, and a great variety of other Dress Goods, embracing all the new novelties of the season, and will be sold cheap enough to insure sales.

BROWN DOMESTICS, 12½, 15 and 20 cts. per yard.

BLEACHED DOMESTICS, 12½, 15, 20 and 25 cts. per yard, and all other goods in proportion.

Also, the largest and most varied stock of

CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
SATINETS,
TWEEDS, AND KENTUCKY JEANS

I ever offered to the trade in this City, both as to price and quality.

Also a very fine assortment of White and Colored FLANNELS,

LADIES' CLOAKS,
BREAKFAST SHAWLS,
SQUARE AND LONG SHAWLS,

which will be sold at prices to suit my customers.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED HATS,—new styles, from 50 cents to $4,00 each.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

The largest and best stock I ever brought to the City, consisting, in part, of J. Miles & Sons' make and others of equally high standing.

Ladies' Pegged Balmorals, from $1 to $2.

Ladies' Sewed Balmorals, from $1,50 to $3,50.

CREECH'S is the place to come to buy your Boots and Shoes.

Hats, Hats, Hats,

From 75 cts. to $4,00. Don't stop until you come to CREECH'S to buy your Hats. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of ALL Goods.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say, I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh, Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c., &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to compression of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

THE ELECTION.

The election was conducted far more successfully on yesterday, than we expected. The blacks were there in immense crowds; so much so that but few whites could vote. They will vote to-day. We learn that 1020 votes were cast, but of course we have no information as to the relative numbers. To day, we learn, three boxes will be arranged, instead of two. LET EVERY WHITE VOTER BE ON HAND!

THE FREEDMEN INCAPABLE OF SUFFRAGE.

For many years prior to 1835, in North Carolina, the free negroes were allowed to vote. The small number usually found in our towns were generally among the more intelligent, and it has been remarked, to their credit, that they usually cast their votes for highly respectable citizens. These, however, found in the country populations were not entitled to the same credit. Almost universally, however, it may be said, in truth, that they were found improper custodians of so sacred and fearful a responsibility. For while it is true that they voted in the towns for intelligent men, it was readily discovered that no patriotic impulses, no love of country, ever influenced their action, but that, in every instance, they were guided by sinister and selfish influences. No race on earth is so individually controlled by considerations of personal good, as the negro race. "What good am I to receive at once for my vote," was found to be the ruling motive, and whether that good was to secure the friendship and aid of a distinguished lawyer in time of trouble, or the privilege of living on some rich man's land, or the laying up some profit from the rich beers on a rainy day, or a few good drinks of whisky,—these and other selfish motives controlled the votes of the colored voters before 1835. The prevalence of this universal spirit of self, and the total absence of all patriotic considerations, led to the prohibition in 1835, in North Carolina, of negro voting.

Should negro suffrage continue in North Carolina, for one or twenty years, the same characteristics will be found to exist, and should the white race maintain the ascendancy, as it certainly will in this State, the exercise of suffrage will become an effete institution with the blacks, as a general rule.

The manner of the exercise of the right of suffrage by the blacks in the South, in all the recent elections, and in this City, on yesterday, speaks out in thunder tones to the country and shows their utter incapacity as a race to exercise the privilege. Look at the facts:

1. From the close of the war to the present time, with few exceptions, the white people of the South have shown a spirit of kindness and a disposition to cultivate good feeling between the races. Old masters have been anxious to secure the services of old servants at fair wages. In nine cases out of ten, this disposition, on the part of the whites, has been treated with scorn by the blacks, in showing a preference to be employed by strangers or persons with whom they have not lived. Yet there are thousands of instances in which old servants have become afflicted and needy, and have returned to their old owners for help and have been relieved.

2. As a general rule, the blacks have not sought instruction in political matters from their old friends, but from strangers. Trifling white or colored men, hitherto known to be men of but little influence among us, have suddenly acquired a power over the colored people, and are leading them, like sheep, to the ballot box.

3. Perhaps the best evidence of the utter disqualification of the masses of the colored people to vote, is to be found in the fact, that the blacks go almost en masse, as they are led or controlled by the Leagues or their leaders. The character of the men for whom they vote, appears to be a matter of total indifference. Men unknown, yet connected with the Leagues, are taken up and voted for by them, without regard to their former position or their qualifications.

4. As a class, the blacks seem determined not to believe what the truest men in the country tell them. Their old masters, to whom they go for help pecuniarily, are not consulted or their advice is totally ignored, so potent is the controlling influence exercised over them by the persons we have described.

THE GAME OF THE RADICALS.

We hear of tickets afloat in the County of a mixed nature, with names from both tickets on it. We heard of this several days ago. We learn that this is charged upon the Sentinel. We deny it. The appearance of the mixed tickets indicates that they were printed at the Standard office. No tickets have been printed at this office, except the regular Conservative ticket ordered by the Executive Committee, and 200, which were ordered by a gentleman, on his own account, and not issued until yesterday.

WHAT ABOUT THE IMPEACHMENT?—Congress was to impeach the President, but in the meantime the people, in the late elections, have impeached Congress. Who is going to be tried?—N. Y. Herald.

MILITARY COMMISSIONS.

We published, on yesterday, a brief telegraphic abstract of Gen. Canby's report of the military regime in this District. But few points, worthy of special note, are presented in the synopsis; but there is one which will impress the country, wherever in it the spirit of civil liberty lingers, with profound surprise and concern. The extraordinary fact is mentioned that nine hundred and fifty nine cases have been tried by Military Commissions in the District. To the credit of Gen. Schofield, it has been stated, that he has not, during his entire administration, ordered the trial of half a dozen civilians before similar tribunals. Why this difference? Why is it that in North and South Carolina the tongue of the civil law has been cut out by the sword? It cannot be that less respect is paid to law here than elsewhere in the South, or that our Courts have been less disposed to deal out impartial justice to all. When Gen. Sickles was in Raleigh, and at the University, he proclaimed, in the hearing of the President of the United States, that, throughout the borders of North Carolina, order, tranquility and obedience to law prevailed. Why then, we again ask, the difference?

It may be accounted for only in this way: We have a set of men in our midst, who rejoice in the oppression of their fellow citizens, and who have hounded on the military authorities, by false and malignant representations, to harrass and annoy them.—Feeling that they were despised for their malignity and meanness, they have sought every opportunity to wreak a cruel and unmanly revenge, by distilling poison into the ears of those in power. Publicly and privately, secretly and openly, they have called the attention of the military to this or that man, whose chief and real crime, in nine out of ten cases, was that he differed with these creatures politically or spurned them for their baseness. The military authorities are not so much to blame in this matter, except in lending a too credulous ear to the slanders of men who, they could easily see, were odious to the entire body of their neighbors and were influenced by the most grovelling and sinister motives,—who were Pariahs and lepers among their own people and devoured by mean and bad passions.

The cost to the Government of these 959 cases, which have been tried by Military Commissions, has been enormous. And we undertake to say that there was hardly one of them in which the ordinary process of the Civil Courts could not have been employed, for the perfect promotion of all the ends of justice. And, furthermore, each instance, instead of advancing the professed object of "reconstruction," has but tended to render the people more restive and discontented.

SHERIFF RAY.

This excellent and prompt officer, on Monday evening, received an order from Gen. Canby, instructing him to report to Head Quarters, at once, all persons who are delinquent in paying their State and County taxes. He met with a number of colored people, soon after, and informed them of the order, and urged upon all of them, who were delinquent, to pay up their taxes at once, so as to avoid the necessity of being reported as delinquents. He told them that all delinquents, without regard to color, should be reported.

It was not long after this, that the report was started that Sheriff Ray had received an order from Gen. Canby, that all delinquent tax payers would not be allowed to vote. Who gave this coloring to the report, we are not advised. It is positively certain that Sheriff Ray gave no countenance whatever to this rumor, by anything he had said.

We learn that, on yesterday, a handbill was issued from the Standard office, charging this rumor upon Sheriff Ray. The statement is wholly false and unfounded.—The truth is that the Sheriff knew, as every intelligent man in the city must have known, that every registered voter is allowed to vote, taxes or no taxes. No man is compelled to pay a tax of any kind, in order to vote in this election.

It is very evident that, anxious as many of the colored people are to enjoy the rights and privileges of freemen, but few of them, comparatively, seem disposed to bear any of the burdens of freemen. Look at the facts:

In North Carolina, 71,637 colored men have registered as voters. Of this number only 33,000 have entered their names as tax payers. In the County of Wake, about 2,000 colored voters have registered. Of this number only 1,297 have entered their names as tax payers!

THE ARMING OF NEGROES IN VIRGINIA.—I am informed that General Schofield, in his interview with the President the day before yesterday, gave a good deal of information relative to the arming of the blacks in his district. The General stated that the negroes were pretty generally armed, and that the whites in this respect were at a great disadvantage. The propriety of taking some measures to prevent a dangerous use by the blacks of their superiority in arms and organization was discussed, and it is probable that some plan will be agreed upon when the General returns here from his visit to New York. General Schofield is said to be of the opinion that the Convention business in Virginia will prove a complete failure.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. World.

OUR SCALLAWAGS.—Old Thad. Stevens evidently understands the Southern Radicals. He is reported as saying that "with the Federal patronage the loyal white element of the South will always carry the negro (that's right, Thad., negro) population with them." That's the idea exactly, and if the "patronage" should be withdrawn, these loyal vagabonds would soon cease to clamor for negro suffrage.—Richmond Dispatch.

The New York Herald, in commenting upon the onesided facileness of the biographer Porter's pen, uses this pungent remark: "Wonderful writer! He made a biography of Butler, too—and left out the spoons."

The Alabama Convention ordered the Secretary to procure for each delegate fifteen daily newspapers, "loyal and favorable to reconstruction under the acts of Congress," but the motion was reconsidered and lost, probably because so few of the delegates could read.

TO THE REAR!

The New York Times (Radical) has been engaged, ever since the result of the recent elections, in attempting to devise some method of retreat, which shall save the credit of the Republican party and be at the same time practical. At first, it seemed to be of the impression that the most advisable plan would be for the people in the Southern States, wherever they could do so, to defeat the Constitutions that might be framed by the Conventions. Now, however, it fixes upon the power of revision reserved by Congress over the new State Constitutions, as affording an opportunity for a change of base, and the substitution of "impartial" for "universal" suffrage. We insert enough of the Times's article to show the gist of its position:

"The action of Congress has placed them (the Republican party) in a false position upon this subject, and has apparently committed them to a principle which they do not hold.

If the question were free from "side issues," it would be easily and promptly settled. If it were simply this—"are the negroes of the South, as a body, qualified to take part in the reorganization of the Southern State governments; is it wise or safe to leave them to decide what principles shall be embodied in the State Constitution, what shall be the form and power of these State Governments, and what shall be the securities for life and property under them"—there are no ten men out of a thousand in the Republican party who would not say no. Nobody believes they are. How should they be? The great mass of them have been kept in the most stolid ignorance all their lives; they can neither read nor write; they have heard nothing of the simplest facts of our history or our government; they have neither the capacity to form opinions nor the material to form them from; and as matters of necessity, as well as of fact, they will be and are simply tools in the hands of party leaders and wire-pullers on the one side or the other. Circumstances just now throw them into the hands of the Republicans. The weight of their votes can and will be thrown into the Republican scale. And it is this fact which leads the Republicans to accept for them the principle of universal suffrage, and which, we may add, leads the Democrats to oppose it.

We do not think it would be wise to attempt to change the Reconstruction act in this particular now. In the first place it cannot be done; and in politics nothing is wise which is impossible. Moreover it would arrest the whole progress of reconstruction and involve fresh conflicts, complications and delays in a matter in which delay is of itself one of the worst things that can happen. But the Reconstruction act reserves to Congress the whole business of revising the constitutions that may be sent up from the States for its approval. If they contain provisions which Congress does not approve, it can strike them out and send them back for revision and amendment. This seems to us a power which Congress should exercise freely and boldly; and it may so exercise it in regard to suffrage as to make the Southern constitutions conform to what is the real sentiment and purpose of the Republican party upon this subject. It can substitute impartial suffrage for universal suffrage. It can forbid the State governments from making color alone a ground of disfranchisement, without compelling them to admit ignorance, stolidity, and incapacity to the ballot box. It can permit them to prescribe such qualifications for the suffrage as they may deem expedient, insisting only that whatever qualifications may be prescribed shall apply to all inhabitants of the State alike, without regard to race or color. By some such action as this it seems to us the rights of the negroes at the South may be protected, without putting in peril any interest or principle which the Republican party has at heart."

As the Richmond Whig remarks, nothing better illustrates the blindness and incapacity of the Congressional leaders than this whole reconstruction scheme. They did, it seems, what they did not want to do, and what they now cannot undo without a clear back down, and without confessing their utter and absolute incapacity as legislators. The Times, always adroit and full of resources, suggests the above mode of escape from the disagreeable dilemma—in effect that although Congress has required in the reconstruction acts that the Southern States shall embody the principle of universal (negro) suffrage in their constitutions, that when those constitutions are framed, in accordance with this requirement, and are sent up for the approval of Congress, that body, under its reserved power, shall erase what it required—"universal suffrage," and substitute "impartial suffrage" for it. This is Republican statesmanship!

The effort to do what we are told Congress did not wish or intend to do, has thus far cost the country, in Virginia alone, in ten months, five millions of dollars, independent of other expenses and the cost of the Freedmen's Bureau.

A day of reckoning is surely at hand.

WHAT SHOULD THE SOUTH DO?

The National Intelligencer of Saturday has an interesting editorial, from which we take the following:

"Whatever may be the ultimate judgment of the people of the old free States on this subject, it is very certain that no immediate relief from the imposition of negro suffrage upon the Southern States can be expected.

"What, then, it is asked, can citizens of the South do in their present situation? From what quarter can they expect early relief? Not from the United States Senate, for that body will remain Radical for four years, and resist the repeal or modification of the reconstruction acts. The House of Representatives may be Democratic or Conservative in the next Congress through the elections in the States now represented. But if the Radicals bring into the House, as they say they will, fifty Radical negro representatives, they will still maintain a majority.

"The only salvation for the South and the whole country is to be found in the possible chance that the Southern people will reject constitutions fixing upon them and the whole Union the despotic rule of the Radical party through the establishment of negro supremacy.

"It is absurd to suppose that Congress, in this case, will revert to positive measures, to confiscation, disfranchisement, &c. The people will not tolerate this."

Confirmatory of the opinion expressed, as above, by Messrs. Baker and Wilson, we may state, upon reliable authority, says the Richmond Whig, that Chief Justice Chase has, during his presence in this city, given utterance to the same conclusion in the most positive terms.

COUNTERFEITS.—Look out for counterfeit ten-dollar bills on the First National Bank, Philadelphia. Six different bills have been offered at one of our banks this week.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

LETTERS OF "ITINERANT."

FRANKLIN, MACON CO., N. C.
November 10, 1867.

I drove out of Webster, not without a thought of its prototype, who now sleeps beneath the soil of Massachusetts. The two differ widely in fame, but if Daniel was more hospitable than this Webster, his house must have been a good place to stop at.

I am still on the State Road,—"To F. 20 M." Our horse, George, seems to think as well of this country as we do,—especially its corn and hay, and pure spring water.

THE COWEE MOUNTAINS.

Toiling up a long, steep ascent, mile after mile, at last the weary traveller and jaded horse are at the top of the Cowee mountains. But he is paid for his labor. It is far, very far, above the level of the sea and is wild and grand. Ravishing scenery meets the eye in every direction. Far in the distance are mountains, hills, specks of farms, and a ceaseless West.

The growth on the Cowee, if marketable, would be valuable. Locust, to my surprise, abounds. Straight, for say thirty feet, without a limb, it yields the best of posts, and is used for underpinning for houses. It is exceedingly durable.

Poplar, very large and long, abounds. Hickory grows to perfection. And the Chestnut appears to be to the mountains, what Pine is to the plains.

Poplar is a substitute for Pine, in these mountain districts, for inside work, floors and ceiling, and is used to great advantage for weather-boarding.

WHITE PINE.

The wood for packing boxes, abounds in the mountains of North Carolina. It grows to a height of sixty to eighty feet, and say forty-eight inches in diameter. The odor of its gum is fragrant.

Hemlock is found on my route.

Balsam is abundant, but usually seeks the very tops of the mountains. It can be distinguished, by its dark, very dark, green foliage.

Spruce Pine is very abundant and the bark is used, I learn, for tanning leathers.—This is supposed, by some, to be the Hemlock, of the Northern States, so famous for tanning purposes there.

SIDE HILL FARMING.

The low countryman who stands off and dreads his hill-side of ten degrees rise, would soon learn to look upon his little trouble with indifference, if he had to farm up here. There are vast numbers of fields that lie on hills that slope forty-five degrees. They are so steep that wagons can be driven down, only by having a small tree tied on behind, to keep them from running down too fast.

The ploughing is done, of course, in horizontal lines. I see much very fine corn on very steep hills; but they are admirably suited to grass.

BOTTOM LAND.

Between all these mountain ranges, there are beautiful and extensive valleys, which bear generally the names of the streams which flow through them. These valleys are invariably fertile; but the cotton land possesses quite a singular feature. The lowest land is inferior to a sort of table land that lies, say fifteen feet, above the river lands proper. This upper floor is much above the lower, in point of fertility. It is superior land, and the proof of it is furnished now. Although the season has been unusually dry, and crops are comparatively poor, the present standing crop of corn is, to a low countryman, heavy. This section only needs a railroad, to secure for it the cognomen of Egypt.

WILD PIGEONS—A WEATHER BREEDER.

The boys of the low country could enjoy themselves up here just now, among the pigeons. Immense flocks of them are flying this fall. But they are going southward, which is regarded, in these regions, as an indication of cold weather this winter.

TWO STRAY BIRDS.

Halting at a little Mountain stream, on the Western slope of the Cowee, to water the horse, I met, vis-a vis, no less a personage than the Impending Crisis. He is a very handsome man, a kind of lordly looking figure. His hair is gray—rather iron gray. His coat, vest and pants were gray, intensely gray. But few remarks passed.—We passed each other, like the orbits of two wandering stars; he from stage to stage of a wild extinction,—I from county to county, in a good cause.

Hinton Rowan Helper has gone to Asheville, I learn, to try to make arrangements for a newspaper, an organ for a sort of "white man's America," or something of a similar nature.

Mrs. Hinton Rowan Helper is a Spaniard, a native of Buenos Ayres; educated in New York; and a boarder, she and Nojoque, in Franklin, Macon county, N. C. They object to boarding with families who employ colored servants.

THE VALLEY OF THE TENNESSEE.

Descending the western slope of the Cowee Mountains, an enchanting valley spreads itself out before the traveller. As far as the eye can reach, is the same unchanging scene, interminable hills and intermediate valleys, bounded in the distance by the lofty mountains. I don't know why the Ridge was named Blue Ridge.—All mountains have a bluish cast, attributable to the vapors that lie around them, together with their distance.

The Valley of the Tennessee River is very extensive. But even the North Carolina part of it is one of the largest of the unnumbered Valleys of Western North Carolina. It is exceedingly fertile. This year the corn crop is pronounced rather better than last year—both years excellent. For miles our horse trots down grade until we reach a flat surface, that lies just as the farmer wants it. It is easily plowed, rich, mellow and suited to almost any product that will flourish in a stiff cool soil.

WHEAT.

The best wheat I perhaps ever saw, grew this year in Macon County, raised by C. D. Smith. It yielded twenty-five bushels to the acre, and is the heaviest and plumpest white wheat I know of in this State. I was much taken with the Catawba wheat.—More interest is manifested in this grain, by the Catawba people, generally, than any I know of. But Mr. Smith's wheat, I presume, would take the lead at any Fair in North Carolina.

This section produces considerable quantities of Buck-wheat.

ITINERANT.

Louis Napoleon proposes to affiance the Prince Imperial of France to Gizelle, the youngest daughter of the Emperor of Austria.

Colonel R. A. Stewart, of Louisiana, writes from Brazil to contradict the stories that emigration to that region has been a failure.

The New York Times, in alluding to Forney's nomination of Grant, says:

"The hoisting of the Grant flag since the election, by certain extreme Radical journals and politicians, is regarded here as a signal of distress, and there is a feeling against taking them on board, unless they will give guaranties of their behavior."

In Fredericksburg, Va., the agents of the Freedmen's Bureau "toted" the infirm darkies from the hospital, and drove the colored rascals from the jail to the polls.

MARRIED:

From Physicians.
We hereby certify that the Rosadalis is prepared by a Physician, who is an experienced Pharmaceutist and Chemist, and that his remedy is an efficient and reliable one in SCROFULA, Syphilis, &c., it having performed some remarkable cures in this vicinity.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE.—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Teritary Syphilis, [one a terrible case of eight years' standing,] in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.
Respectfully yours, &c.

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.
HOME CERTIFICATE.
I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—[one tumor reached a large size.] The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

Rosadalis cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.
Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.
I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

Wilson, May 11th, 1867.
Consumption, in its Early Stages, can be Cured.
BALTIMORE, Md., March 4th, 1867.
Dear Dr. Lawrence—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis," I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nealy two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the emaciated form, glossy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis, as a tonic—which she did—imagine my surprise and gratification, when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually ceased, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.
Yours respectfully,
MRS. E. ANN SMITH.
Rosadalis cures all Skin Diseases.
Salt Rheum Cured! Remarkable Cure!!
DR. LAWRENCE, Wilson, N. C.:
My Dear Sir—For the last ten years (until recently) I suffered with an inveterate eruption of the skin—called by physicians "Salt Rheum"—with which I suffered terribly; the pain and itching was almost intolerable. I tried several of the best physicians in Europe and this country—have visited several celebrated Springs—spent thousand of dollars—and failed to get any better. In December 1866, being in Charleston S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel, that he had been cured of a bad tetter by a medicine called "Rosadalis." I resolved to try it, without any hope though of its doing me any good. I procured a bottle of Messrs. King & Cassiday, and commenced taking it. Finding, to my surprise, that I was improving, I bought four other bottles; but before commencing on the last two, I found I was completely well—the disease having entirely disappeared.
Enclosed find "One Hundred Dollars," which please accept as a token of my gratitude. Why do you not make your invaluable Rosadalis widely known?
Your sincere friend,
W. T. SELTZER.
Major John W. Dunham, one of the editors of the Wilson "North Carolinian," says in the issue of the 20th April, 1867: "I believe from personal experience, that the Rosadalis is the finest tonic ever prepared."

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

CONSERVATIVES OF THE CITY!

Do not let the dense crowds of negroes around the ballot box prevent your discharging your duty. You have a right to vote and you must determine to exercise it. Facilities must be afforded to you to cast your votes. Do not be discouraged if you go once and fail. Go again and again, if necessary, but be sure to vote. Great responsibility rests upon every man to vote in this election. The Radicals would be glad to prevent your voting, by every possible means. They have tried to do this evidently. Do not gratify them—or allow them to prevent your voting. Vote, vote, vote, and drive Radicalism to the wall.—You can do it, if you will.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The Spring term of the Misses Nash and Miss Kollock's Select Boarding and Day School, at Hillsboro', will commence on the 7th. of February. This School is, deservedly, one of our most popular institutions. The course of instruction is excellent and the discipline admirable.

NIGHTCAPS.—The streets presented an appearance of blackness on yesterday, which only needed the accompaniment of a cloudy sky to have produced the darkness of an eclipse. The vicinity of the Court House, where the election was held, was one mass of negroes. White men found it difficult to urge their way through the crowd, and many abandoned the effort, for the day, in despair. The whole spectacle was revolting in the extreme.

The negroes, everywhere, men and boys, left their daily employments and thronged the streets.

SARGENT, THE ILLUSIONIST.—This celebrated Prestidigitateur, as already announced, commences a series of his brilliant entertainments at Tucker Hall, to morrow evening. The Southern papers speak in high terms of his performances. We clip the following from the Wilmington Journal, of the 14th:

"A large audience was in attendance at the Theatre last evening, to witness the wonderful feats performed by Professor Sargent. We can say no less than that he gave universal satisfaction. His illusions were exceedingly fine, and he kept the audience in one continual state of wonder and delight during the whole of the entertainment. It is seldom the public are favored with an opportunity of witnessing the wonders performed by so experienced an Illusionist as Professor Sargent, and during his stay here there is no doubt but that he will achieve as favorable a reputation as has been his fortune to gain elsewhere. An enumeration of the wonders performed by him is almost impossible. To satisfy themselves, we advise those who have not seen him to neglect not the opportunity to attend his entertainment while still in the city.

The distribution of gifts at the close of the performance was attended with much pleasant excitement and no little merriment. Certainly no one can regret the money or time spent in witnessing the pleasant and wonderful illusions of Sargent."

ILLEGAL TICKETS.—A large number of Tickets were voted by the negroes, on yesterday, on which the Christian names of the Radical candidates are not given, but simply the initials. According to Gen. Canby's order, these votes are not entitled to be counted. They were printed at the Standard office, we presume, as they have on them the promised "device"—a blue non descript something, probably a symbol of the League.

RELEASED ON BAIL.—We are greatly gratified to learn that Col. Bomford Post Commandant, on yesterday consented to release, on bail, Messrs. Hall, Lutterloh and El. Powers, the young gentlemen who have been for some time in military confinement, on the charge of conspiracy in the killing of Bebee, the negro who attempted to outrage a respectable young lady of Fayetteville, in February next. A number of our most prominent and substantial citizens volunteered to enter into security for them. Their release will carry joy to the hearts of relatives and friends at home.

THE NEGROES sent together like cattle, on yesterday, for the Radical ticket. Some few, whose names are known, voted the Conservative ticket, and they may rest assured that their conduct will be appreciated by the whites in Raleigh. They have made friends, while the mass of their race have rushed into direct enmity against that better class of our people, with whom their true interests have heretofore been connected.

STATE ITEMS.

—Lieut. Gen. D. H. Hill is in Wilmington, canvassing for the "Land We Love,"—a mission in which he deserves, and we hope will meet, success.

—The Wilmington Star learns that business in Fayetteville has considerably improved within the past few weeks. It justly says that, with the necessary capital to re build her factories, the old town will yet regain much of her former prosperity.

—Messrs. Arch. McLean and Alfred Jackson, the gentlemen who were first nominated as the Conservative candidates in Cumberland county, having been declared ineligible, the following new ticket was nominated by a meeting held in Fayetteville on Thursday last, viz: A. A. McKethan, Esq., and Capt. Joseph A. McArthur. This is an exceedingly strong ticket, and will, we trust, be elected by a handsome majority.

—The new town of Selma, in Johnston County, is looking up. A friend informs us that fourteen new buildings are up and five more in process of erection. Messrs. Preston & Moody, Col. W. J. Clarke, and A. M. Noble are erecting fine structures.—The stock in the contemplated Iron Foundry has nearly all been taken, and a Company organized with A. M. Noble, Esq., as President, and Wesley Whitaker, Jr., as Secretary and Treasurer.

—The Wilmington Star says that a marked change has taken place in the minds of the negroes of Bladen county within the past week. At a meeting held at Council's Bluff, last Friday, a negro made a speech in favor of the Conservative ticket. If the whites will poll their full strength in Bladen, Messrs. Robinson and Lewis will be triumphantly elected.

—Dr. J. H. Baker, Col. H. A. Dowd and Henry C. Perry are the Conservative candidates in Edgecombe.

Rousseau has got to Walrussia and hauled down the Russian flag. As a neat reminder of the hasty way in which Rousseau used his walking-stick upon Grinnell, a hurricane signalled his arrival. When the Russian flag came down, Miss Makeastoff, a Russian princess, wailed and blubbered audibly during the ceremony, exclaiming "Alas!—alas!—alas!—ka!—ka!—kan it be possible!?

SURRATT'S COUNSEL.—It is stated that as Mr. Bradley has been dismembered from the Washington bar, and therefore is no longer a counsel for John H. Surratt, the eminent New York criminal lawyer, James T. Brady, is about to volunteer as counsel for the defence.

HUSBANDS AT HOME.

A RACY SKETCH FOR THE LADIES.

Mrs. "Patsy Spangle," a charming correspondent of the Louisville Courier, addresses the following to that paper. There are many ladies, we dare say, who think with Mrs. Spangle, if they do not speak out. To them this letter will be a great treat:

SPANGLE AS A LOVER.

I first met Spangle at a country fair. We were introduced to each other at about 10 o'clock in the morning, and, if you believe me, I did not get a chance to speak to any other gentleman that day. I never saw a fellow so struck at first sight. I don't think he saw a horse, or in fact anything that was on exhibition that day but me, although there were present many of the most beautiful and accomplished young ladies of that section of the country. As he was extremely good looking, of good family, and of unexceptionable character and habits, I, of course, felt flattered by his marked preference. I had to take him to dinner, and introduce him to pa and ma and the whole family. He made a very good impression. In fact, Spangle can shine when he tries. I remember the fact with pride. Well, it is the old story. He became infatuated, and obtained my permission to visit me at my home and spend a day there in just two weeks from the time we met. During these two weeks I received daily long letters from Simon, closely written and cross written. [I wish I had kept them.] At length the day of his visit arrived, and lo and behold the servant girl awoke me in the morning with the pleasant information that Spangle was waiting for me in the parlor. Here was a lover for you!

MARRIAGE AND HONEYMOON.

Well! well! As I said before, it was the old story ever recurring, ever sweetly told, and ever listened to by willing ears. Suffice it to say that from that day I saw no peace until I became Mrs. Spangle. Our honeymoon was, I suppose, like all honeymoons, short and delicious.

THE REALITIES OF LIFE.

And then came all the realities of life. It is my belief that this is the most trying period of a woman's life. However kind and attentive her husband may be, a young wife, when she enters upon the realities of life, has disclosed to her a state of facts of which she has little or no conception before marriage. When she leaves an atmosphere of romance and adulation and enters upon the realities of life, it is like stepping out of a garden of summer flowers into the regions of perpetual winter, and unless she brings all of her good sense and philosophy to her aid, her affections will become chilled and she will regard herself a disappointed, if not a deceived, woman for the balance of her life. It is the hope that our experience may be of benefit to young wives, that induces me to reveal some of the domestic incidents and infelicities of twelve years of married life.

After our brief holiday, Spangle—to use his own expression—took a tilt at the world, determined to wrest from it not only a competence, but a fortune that would place me in the most beatific attitude to be obtained by opulence.

The dear fellow did work hard, and if he met with obstacles and difficulties, and trials, the world never knew it. He reserved them for his fireside, and although he did not accuse me as the cause, yet I could but feel that I was some way or other accountable for his troubles.

Although I never seriously doubted his love for me, yet he certainly permitted many excellent opportunities for manifesting it to pass unimproved. Before we were married he seemed to have a perfect mania for holding my hand, and I used to wonder if he would ever give me an opportunity to do any needle work after marriage. But, bless your soul! after marriage, when opportunities for indulging in that delicious past time were abundant, it seemed to have lost its charm. Poor foolish me! I was often aggrieved at his apparent coolness, and would ask him twenty times a day if he did love me. "Why certainly I do, my dear little puss; I knew it!" Perhaps I did. I also knew that we had plenty of flour and bacon in the pantry, but that knowledge did not satisfy my hunger.

THE HONEYMOON IN A PARTIAL ECLIPSE.

It is true that this affection manifested itself sporadically with all the warmth and ardor of the old days; but these ebullitions were the exceptions. The rule was, "I thought you knew it." Yes, girls, when you get husbands, they will expect you to know it, and my advice to you is, that you get all the courting you want before you are married, for after that event what little courting is done in the family will have to be done by the wife.

SPANGLE AS A FATHER.

We have six children, all beautiful and good. Spangle takes great pride in them, loves them, and growls at them, like a dear old bear. You must not think that Spangle regards the "new comers" as burdens. Quite the reverse. He goes into ecstacies over each one; dilates upon its beauties and perfections for five minutes, and then seems to think it ought to be laid away to grow up, and be no further trouble to him until they want to marry. If one of them has an ache and cries at night, Spangle thinks that the pain is a special bardship to him, because it keeps him awake a few minutes — The fact is undeniable that the best men are selfish brutes so far as babies are concerned.

SPANGLE AT HOME.

I will say, though, of all the children I have Spangle is the biggest baby. 'Tis true he was through with most of the ailments I have enumerated before I got him, but in a thousand other respects he still is, and always will remain, in that chronic state of babyhood which ever attends over indulged and spoiled husbands. When we were first married my old baby would almost break his back to pick up my fan, and he would kill a fly in a minute if the fly manifested a disposition to alight on my nose.

Now I have to almost literally dress him in the morning. I have to get his boots together, one of which he generally kicks under the bureau, the other under the bed.

I always have to find his cravat. If I go to bed first, in the morning I find his clothes scattered over the room, as only a man can scatter clothes. He would never put on a clean shirt if it were not spread out on a chair before him. His sleeve buttons are taken out and put in by me, when taken out and put in at all. I do not believe that he has combed his own head since we were married. He can't even wash his face properly without being told, like any other child. If I did not wash him, his ears and the back of his neck would be a sight to behold.

SPANGLE ON A SICK BED.

Albeit he has no patience for others who have pains and aches, yet you ought to see him when anything is the matter with him. He tears, and screams, and grunts over a slight attack of colic in a manner to keep every one awake in the house. At such times he always believes he is going to die and will not suffer me to leave him for a moment.

Yet with all his faults I—well, you know the quotation. I believe he is the best man living, and would not give him for a tenacre lot full of men like the scrapegrace of a husband which your foolish, credulous correspondent "Dolly Dash" is so silly about.

Gen. Canby's Election Order.

HEADQUARTERS SECOND MILITARY DIST.,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 18, 1867.

General Orders No. 101.

By the terms of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," passed March 2d, 1867, and of the Acts of March 23d, and July 19th, 1867, supplementary thereto,—it is made the duty of the Commanding General of this Military District to cause a registration to be made of the male inhabitants of the State of North Carolina, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards and qualified by the terms of said Acts to vote, and after such registration is complete, to order an election to be held at which the registered voters of said state shall vote for or against a Convention, for the purpose of establishing a Constitution and civil government for the said State, loyal to the Union, and for delegates to said Convention—and to give at least thirty days' notice of the time and place at which said election shall be held; and the said registration having been completed in the State of North Carolina, It is ordered:

First. That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 19th day of November, 1867, and ending on Wednesday, the 20th day of November, 1867, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For a Convention," or "Against a Convention," and for delegates to constitute the Convention—in case a majority of the votes given on that question, shall be for a Convention, and in case a majority of the registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such Convention.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days the registration lists, and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, to strike the name of such person from the list; and such person shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such registers the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts—who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2d, 1867, and the laws supplementary thereto, and their attention is specially directed to the Supplementary Act of July 19th, 1867.

Fourth. The said election will be held in each County or District at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the Boards of Registration as provided by law, and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Fifth. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at such voting places at eight o'clock in the forenoon and closed at four in the afternoon, of each day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. No member of the Board of Registration, who shall offer for election as a delegate to the Convention, shall serve as a Judge on the election in any County or District which he seeks to represent.

Eighth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will use such reasonable measures as shall be necessary to preserve order. If there should be more than one polling place in any county, the sheriff of the County is empowered to make such arrangements of his deputies, and other peace officers, to the other polling places, as may in his judgment, best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Ninth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering, or exercising the right of voting, is positively forbidden, and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of elections to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority.

Tenth. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from 6 o'clock of the evening of the 18th of November, until 6 o'clock of the morning of the first of November, 1867, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Eleventh. Military interference with elections (unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls,) is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25th, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless citizens of the State (they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Twelfth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.

Thirteenth. The number of delegates to the Convention is determined by law and is the number of members of the most numerous branch of the Legislature for the year eighteen hundred and sixty, and this number, one hundred and twenty, is apportioned to the representative Districts of the State in the ratio of registered voters as follows:

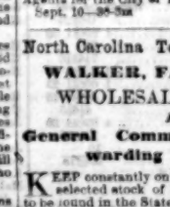
THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine



IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause. You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify. I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in S. C.

No House, Store, Factory or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.

Send for a Circular.
